

BIOGRAPHIES OF BARB GAMEY AND DAVE ANGUS

Barb Gamey co-founded Payworks, Inc. and serves as its chief executive officer. Gamey has overseen the strategic direction and development of the company since its inception. She served as president of Payworks, Inc. She has 15 years of experience. She has been honoured with awards for her entrepreneurial work, most recently when she was named by Women of Influence Inc. as the winner in the Momentum Award at the 2012 RBC Canadian Women Entrepreneur Awards (CWEA). She was also named to the Profit W100 in 2009. She sits on the board of the Prairie Theatre Exchange Foundation, supports Special Olympics Manitoba and the United Way of Winnipeg, and is the former chair of the Women's Enterprise Centre.

Payworks Inc. provides web-based payroll, human resource, and employee time management solutions to businesses in Canada. The company offers a Human Resources Management System that allows users to begin mining their employee information for analysis and reporting; and Employee Time Management, a time and attendance solution to schedule employees, track hours, and analyze the workforce. It also provides Employee and Manager Self Service, which ensures that personal information stays up to date, as well as allows staff to access their payroll information and schedules; conversion, implementation, and training support services; and management reports. Payworks Inc. has strategic partnerships with Canadian Federation of Independent Business, Johnston Group, and Paychex. The company was founded in 2000 and is based in Winnipeg with additional offices in Toronto, Vancouver, Victoria, Kelowna, Calgary and Edmonton.

Other affiliations include past-president of Southwood Golf and Country Club, board for the Winnipeg Football Club and directors emeritus, Business Council of Manitoba.

.....

Dave Angus is the vice-president of chamber relations for Johnston Group Inc., one of Canada's leading group benefit providers. He recently joined Johnston Group after 17 years as the president and CEO of the Winnipeg Chamber of Commerce.

Under his leadership, the Winnipeg Chamber of Commerce was instrumental in bringing a World Trade Centre to Winnipeg, establishing Leadership Winnipeg and Yes! Winnipeg, and most recently, the Winnipeg BOLD initiative – a grassroots public policy campaign designed to mobilize the community behind BOLD ideas for the future that are linked to increasing prosperity in the city.

In his current role with Johnston Group, Angus works with its over 900 chamber partners across Canada to help it better serve its small business member companies through the offering of the Chamber Group Insurance Program, Canada's largest small business group benefits program.

Current and previous positions include past-chair and sitting member of the Joint Public Advisory Committee (JPAC) of the Commission for Environmental Cooperation, co-chair of the board of the World Trade Centre Winnipeg, co-chair of the Winnipeg Poverty Reduction Council, board of governors of the Manitoba Museum, board member of Winnipeg's Downtown Council, member of the CentrePort Advisory Committee, member of the YES! Winnipeg Investor Council, president of the Chamber of Commerce Executives of Canada, Canadian representative on the board of directors of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives, co-chair of the Council of International Trade, member of the City of Winnipeg's Red Tape Commission, member of the City of Winnipeg's Zoning Advisory Committee, member of the Mayor's Trade Council, chair of Prairie Theatre Exchange, board member of the YM/YWCA, honorary president of Commerce Students Association – Asper School of Business, campaign cabinet member of United Way of Winnipeg, and co-chair of the general business campaign for the Canadian Museum for Human Rights.