

NAME: BARCLAY, Archibaldus (Dr.) PARISH: Shetland

ENTERED SERVICE: 15 Feb. 1843

DATES: b. ca. 1785
d. 5 Nov. 1855

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*: Position:

HBCA Reference:

An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May*

1806-1843	Graduated with an L.L.D. from King's College, Aberdeen on 31 March 1806, wrote and taught (A.10/37 fo. 159; P.J. Anderson (ed.) Officers and Graduates of University & King's College Aberdeen MVD – MDCCCLX (Aberdeen 1903) p. 269; A.10/69 fo. 97; D.5/59 fo. 27)
1843, 15 Feb.	Appointed as Secretary to the London Committee to replace William Smith	A.10/6 fos. 97-98; A.1/63 fo. 47; D.5/10 fo. 58
1843-1855	Served as Secretary, with frequent bouts of illness	A.1/65 fo. 130; D.5/3d fos. 311-312; D.5/37 fo. 150; D.5/43 fo. 563 passim ; A.10/35 fos. 127-128
1855, 12 Feb.	His services were voted to be dispensed with and his salary paid to 28 Feb. 1855, with a pension of £200, subsequently increased by £50 to cover medical expenses	A.1/69 fo. 204; A.10/37 fos. 157-160; A.1/69 fo. 219
1855, 5 Nov.	Died at his residence on Fitzroy Street, Fitzroy Square	A.10/34 fo. 255

