Munnick and Warner, Catholic Church Records of the Pacific Northwest. Oregon: Binford and Mort, 1979. "Chalifou(x) Andre (I) was a Steersman on the brigade bringing Fathers Blanchet and Demers West in 1838. He had married Catherine Russie in Canada some years before. She and several of their children came with him on the brigade. Another son was born on the way, Michel, and two sons were drowned in the bateau wreck at the Dalles des Morts, apparently Michel and Charles. Chalifoux settled a claim on French Prairie soon after dying there in 1851, age 62." Munnick and Warner, Catholic Church Records of the Pacific Northwest. Oregon: Binford and Mort, 1979.
