According to H.D. Munnick, Catholic Church Records of the Pacific Northwest: St. Paul, Oregon 1839-1898. Volumes I, II and III, Portland, 1979, pp. A-19-20:

Basile Courville "was born [ca. 1822] in New York State near the Canadian border, apparently a mixed-blood. He came West in 1839, perhaps in the employ of the fur trade, and lived around St. Louis, Oregon, for some years. In 1851 he married Marianne Klickatat, the widow of Honore King, who had died unrecorded at some time between 1848 and 1851, possibly in the gold fields. Courville and his wife went to the South Umpqua River of Douglas County to make their home..." They had at least three sons - Louis (1853), Edouard (1858) and Gilbert (1861).
