

NAME: EMPTAGE, William Henry

PARISH: *England

ENTERED SERVICE: 1851

DATES:*b.1829; fl.1851-1860

---

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*:	Position:	Post:	District:	HBCA Reference:
---------------	-----------	-------	-----------	-----------------

*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May

---

1851-1852				B.239/g/31
1852-1853		Recovery		B.239/g/32
1853-1856		Ft. Simpson		B.226/g/1-3
1856-1859	Labourer	Langley		B.226/g/4-6
1859-1860	Listed under outstanding balances			B.226/g/7
1860-1861	Does not appear			B.226/g/8

* Extracts from Jamie Morton's Fort Langley Vol. 1 (Environment Canada, 1988 Report #340) pp. 267-268:

“When [Augustus] Willing deserted in 1856, William Emptage, whom Yale described as ‘a Jack Tar with one arm’ took his place [as Interpreter]. It is not known if Emptage continued in this role through 1858.”

“...Emptage is said to have been born in 1829, and married to a Musqueam woman named Louisa, born in the same year. Emptage, an Englishman, had been a seaman on H.B.C. vessels until a blasting accident in the Queen Charlotte Islands resulted in the amputation of his lower arm.”

“Whether Emptage was married prior to 1858, or had children at that time, is unknown.”

Filename: Emptage, William Henry (b. 1829) (fl. 1851-1860) ; TH 04 97 ; June/99/mhd

