

NAME: GALL, George Alexander
(Also GAUL)

PARISH: Hill Head, Brucklay,
Aberdeenshire

ENTERED SERVICE: 1922

DATES: b. 10 Dec. 1888
d. 5 Dec. 1933

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*:	Position:	Post:	District:	HBCA Reference:
*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May
1922-1923	Postmaster	Lake Harbour	St. Lawrence-Labrador	A.74/51; RG3/40A/1, fo. 209; B.430/a/3, fos.1-29
1923, 1 Sept. 1925	Clerk in Charge	Clyde River	St. Lawrence-Labrador	A.74/52-53; B.430/a/3,fo.29
1925-1927	Post Manager	Pond's Inlet	St. Lawrence-Labrador	A.74/37, p.22; A.74/40
1927-1928	furlough+
1928-1933	Post Manager	Pangnirtung	St. Lawrence-Labrador
1933	Left for furlough
1933, 5 Dec.	Died of influenza (pleuro-pneumonia) at St. John's, Newfoundland, called "one of the most capable men in the District; practical, loyal and conscientious, an excellent guardian of the property entrusted to his care. He was popular with the staff for his personal qualities and held the respect of the natives to a marked degree."			RG3/2/8, fo. 108; The Beaver , Mar.1934, pp.61,63

+ On 30 Nov. 1927 HBC London wrote to him at East Auchechoch, Maud, Aberdeenshire

A.92/Misc./274, fo. 3

Parents: Alexander Gall, Elizabeth Stephan Gall

Photograph: 1985/36/51 Portrait, Cosway Studio, Aberdeen (in Ralph Parsons Collection)

NB: Compiled from documents and from information supplied by his nephew in a letter dated 30 Dec. 1985

