It was recommended in a letter of 15 Nov. 1910 that because of his long service and poor health he should be retired on a pension equal to half his salary. It seems that he had already died by this time.

A.12/FT 334/lb, fo. 10; D.38/50

He was married with a family of 11. Moise Mandeville, who was employed in the region in the 1880s and 1890s, may have been one of his sons.
