

Career Gateway Program for Visible Minorities

People. Purpose. Progress.

The Manitoba government offers you opportunity, diversity and a rewarding career.

The goal of the Career Gateway Program is to increase the number of visible minorities working for the Manitoba government.

How does the program work?

Government departments submit proposals to the Manitoba Civil Service Commission (CSC) for term placements where recruitment needs have been identified. Departments then work with the CSC to recruit visible minority candidates for these jobs.

Successful candidates for the program receive orientation, coaching, training and development to help them successfully apply for these government jobs.

What does the program offer?

- orientation to the government workplace
- training and support for career development
- term jobs in fields related to your education and training

What are the benefits to you?

- develop your skills and abilities
- learn about government processes and systems
- make a difference in your community
- contribute to the future of Manitoba
- be prepared and eligible to apply for jobs throughout government

Who is eligible?

The Career Gateway Program looks for people who have a variety of work experiences and want to develop a career in government. Specific qualifications and requirements will depend on departmental needs.

Candidates will:

- be a member of a visible minority
- have good communications skills
- have relevant training or a combination of education, training and experience to do the job
- be legally entitled to work in Canada

Who are considered visible minorities?

Visible minorities are people, other than Aboriginals, who, because of their race or colour, are a visible minority. Examples include Black (such as: African, Haitian, Jamaican, Somali), South Asian (such as: East Indian, Pakistani, Punjabi, Sri Lankan), South East Asian (such as: Cambodian, Indonesian, Laotian, Vietnamese), Arab / West Asian (such as: Armenian, Egyptian, Iranian, Lebanese, Moroccan), Chinese, Filipino, Latin American, Japanese and Korean.

How to apply

- E-mail your resumé to csc@gov.mb.ca. Note in the subject line that you are sending it to apply for the Career Gateway Program for Visible Minorities.
- In your e-mail, please confirm that you are a member of a visible minority and legally entitled to work in Canada.
- If you do not have e-mail, contact the CSC (see below) to arrange to send your resumé.

How long will my resumé be kept on file?

Resumés are kept on file for six months. You may renew your application by contacting the Career Gateway program coordinator.
