| Canada Student Grant      | - financial assistance awarded to qualifying students for the specific purpose of paying eligible costs associated with the undertaking of a program of studies, as set out by the CSLP. |
|                           | - Grant amounts are non-repayable provided that the eligibility criteria is maintained for the duration of the study period for which the grant was awarded.                             |
