

Compensation for Victims of Crime Program

Support for Family Members

The Compensation for Victims of Crime Program gives compensation (money, services, support) to victims or witnesses who have been injured (physically or emotionally) because of certain crimes that occurred in Manitoba. It also gives compensation to the families and dependants of victims who died in a crime.

You can apply for compensation as an immediate family member if you are the spouse, common-law partner, child, parent, sister or brother of the deceased victim.

Note: The Compensation for Victims of Crime Program only covers physical or emotional injury. It does not cover damaged or stolen property or belongings.

Benefits available to eligible family members

Benefits :	For:	Examples/Amounts:
Counselling services	Immediate family members of a deceased victim who need help dealing emotionally with the loss of the victim	Expenses for counselling with a counsellor approved by the program (including culturally sensitive alternative therapy) Maximum compensation available: $2,000 per family member
Travel and accommodation	Immediate family members who need to leave their community to get counselling or to attend the victim's funeral	Expenses for cab, bus, plane, vehicle mileage, meals, hotel/motel
Bereavement leave	Immediate family members who are employed or self-employed and lose income because they have to take time off work as a result of the victim's death (this also includes time to go to the victim's funeral)	Money to cover the loss of income Maximum compensation available: 55 per cent of the income lost over a maximum of five days (up to $94 per day)
Funeral coverage	Immediate family members who have to pay the victim's funeral costs	Expenses for funeral, burial, cremation, or similar kinds of services Maximum compensation available: $5,400
Crime scene cleaning	Immediate family members who need special cleaning services for their home or vehicle because of the crime	Cost for professional cleaning and disinfecting of contaminated areas

Additional benefits available to eligible dependant spouses or common-law partners of victims who were employed at the time of death

Benefits:	For:	Examples/Amounts:
Loss of wages or income	Financially dependent spouses or common-law partners of deceased victims who were employed or self-employed at the time of death	Payment every two weeks to help support the spouse or common-law partner Maximum compensation available: 55 per cent of the victim's gross income (up to $486 per week)

Additional benefits available to children of a victim who was employed at the time of death

Benefits:	For:	Examples/Amounts:
Loss of wages or income	Children of a victim who was employed or self-employed at the time of death (if the victim had no spouse at the time of death or if the victim had a spouse who was not the biological parent or legal guardian of the child or children)	Monthly payments to help support the children Maximum compensation available: $270 per child per month (up to $1,080 per family unit per month)

Additional benefits available to eligible family who were financially dependent on the victim's income at the time of death

Benefits:	For:	Examples/Amounts:
Loss of wages or income	Relatives who were financially dependent on the victim at the time of death – under 18 or disabled – and the victim was employed or self-employed at the time of death (if the victim had no spouse or common-law partner at the time of death)	Monthly payments to help support the relatives Maximum compensation available: $270 per dependant per month (up to $1,080 per family unit per month)