LAWS GOVERNING EMPLOYMENT of CHILDREN in MANITOBA

- The Employment Standards Code of Manitoba regulates conditions of employment and sets minimum ages for employment.
- Under the Code, no child under the age of 16 years shall be employed except with the written permission of the Director of Employment Standards and in accordance with the permit issued by the Department of Labour.
- The Code also stipulates that no child under the age of 18 years shall be permitted to work alone between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. or in the following industries: forestry, saw or pulp mills, confined spaces, underground in mines or on the face of open pit quarries, or in asbestos abatement and removal.
- No child under the age of 18 years shall be employed under these circumstances or in these industries except with the written permission of the Director of Employment Standards and in accordance with the permit issued by the Department of Labour.
- Children in Manitoba are protected by legislation from engaging in work that would constitute a threat to their health or education. The director will not issue a Child Employment Permit if the safety, health or well-being of the child is likely to be badly affected.
- Employers and employees are subject to all Acts and Regulations pertaining to labour, workplaces and employment standards. A child who is permitted to work has all the same rights as other employees.
- Other provincial legislation may affect the employment of youths. It is the employer's responsibility to know the legislative protections that are specific to children in the workplace.
- A Child Employment Permit is not transferable to employment by an employer that is not specified on the Permit, or to work that is not approved.
- For further information, contact the Employment Standards Office at 945-3352 or 1-800-821-4307 (Toll Free). Or visit our website:
