VALID LICENCE HOLDERS

Foreign Worker Recruitment

Any person who assists a foreign worker in seeking or finding a job in Manitoba, or assists an employer in seeking or finding a foreign worker for a job in Manitoba, is engaging in foreign worker recruitment. A licence is required for foreign worker recruitment under The Worker Recruitment and Protection Act unless an exemption applies. Licences for foreign worker recruitment are not required by the following:

- An agency of the government or a municipality
- A person who finds employees for their employer
- A person who receives no fee to find employment for their family member

Child Talent Agency Business

All child talent agency businesses in Manitoba must be licensed to legally promote or seek work for a child performer.

Licensed child talent agency businesses can only promote or seek work for a child performer if the child holds a work permit issued by the director of Employment Standards, or is a member of the Alliance of Canadian Cinema, Television and Radio Artists (ACTRA) and is performing work at a workplace where ACTRA is the child's bargaining agent.

Unlimited Talent Management	Licence Expires on January 12, 2018

Child Performer Recruitment

Child performer recruitment means the activities of auditioning, scouting or recruiting a child under the age of 17 for the purpose of referring the child to a person engaged in a child talent agency business.

All businesses engaged in child performer recruitment are required to have a licence from Employment Standards unless the child is a member of the Alliance of Canadian Cinema, Television and Radio Artists (ACTRA) and is performing work at a workplace where ACTRA is the child's bargaining agent.

No other person or business can legally engage in child performer recruitment in Manitoba.

Currently no licences

Employment Agency Business

Employment agency businesses help employers find suitable employees to hire. They may also help someone write a resume and improve interview skills. They connect employers with individuals who are job searching but they are not the employer.

Except for the following, anyone operating an employment agency business must hold a valid licence under The Worker Recruitment and Protection Act:

- A union as defined in The Labour Relations Act
- A college or university as defined in section 1 of The Council on Post Secondary Education Act
- A public or private school, as defined in section 1 of The Education Administration Act
- A regional vocational school, established under section 42 of The Public Schools Act
- An agency of the government or municipality

Temporary Help Agency Business

Temporary help agencies assign their employees to their client's worksite for temporary work. A temporary help employee might work with the agency's client for a couple of days or many months depending on the client's needs. The temporary help agency is the employer and must ensure all wages are paid properly. Any person operating a temporary help agency must be licensed under The Worker Recruitment and Protection Act.

The following do not need a licence:

- A person who finds employees for their employer
- An agency of the government or a municipality
