2. PROGRAM STANDARDS

2.1 Review Consultation Process

According to The Apprenticeship & Certification Act, the PACs must consult with industry regard regulatory and technical training updates.

The Industrial Electrician Trade Regulation Consultation Guide was distributed and made accessible to industry stakeholders from October 25 to November 17, 2017. During that time, there were no responses.

The PAC reaffirmed the revision to the definition section and determined to proceed with its recommendation to the Program Standard Standing Committee.

Motion 2017.03.05

Closed.

The PAC recommends that the Programs Standard Standing Committee accept the proposed Industrial Electrician trade regulation as written.

M: Norman Ilchyna

S: Kaitlyn Domienik

Carried.

2.2 Next Steps

The proposed trade regulation will be forwarded to the Program Standards Standing Committee (PSSC) for review and recommendation to the Board at its December 19, 2017 meeting for approval-in-principle. If approved, the trade regulation will be forwarded to legislative counsel to be drafted and translated for Ministerial final approval. The PAC was informed that there will be a 90 day coming to force provision applied for the Industrial Electrician trade regulation.
