

Manitoba Agriculture Pasture Tour

GREEN AND GROWING

Manitoba Agriculture invites you to join us for a pasture tour in northwest Manitoba featuring multiple aspects of summer pasture and forage management, including solar watering, cover cropping, alfalfa weevil monitoring for hay production and more!

Date: Monday, June 23, 2025

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Place: Ste Rose Recreation Centre - 555 Maillard Street Ste Rose, MB

Registration: $40 (includes bus transport, lunch and supper)
Payable to the Intermountain Watershed District

Pre-Registration REQUIRED on or before Friday, June 20, 2025

Please call 1-844-769-6224 to register

Agenda

8:00 a.m.	Sign in at the Ste Rose Recreation Complex Parking Lot	1:15 p.m.	Growing Green - Basics of Establishing Forages Dr Dan Undersander - University of Wisconsin
9:00 a.m.	Bus Departs 9:00 a.m. SHARP	2:15 p.m.	Secure Your Herd and Harvest: Livestock & Forage Insurance That Works MASC Forage and Livestock Insurance Programs Rachel Jensen - Dauphin
9:15 a.m.	Covering New Ground - Nature's Shield for Healthy Soil using Cover Crops Shauna and Clayton Breault - Ste Rose, MB Imperial Seeds	3:00 p.m.	Minerals Matter: Optimizing Pasture Health for Peak Performance Kevin and Lindsay Cherpin - Alonsa, MB Dr. Deanne Wilkinson - Manitoba Agriculture Extension Veterinarian Jordan Dickson - Ruminant Nutritionist New Rosedale Feeds
10:15 a.m.	Sun Powered Grazing Corn Grazing and solar powered watering systems Dean Gamache - Ste Amelie, MB	4:30 p.m.	"Evening Eats" BBQ supper Hosted by Alonsa Go Getters 4-H Club
11:30 a.m.	"Bugged Out" - Weevil Watch, Grasshoppers and Dung Beetles - what to watch for in your forage fields! John Gavloski - Manitoba Agriculture Entomologist	5:30 p.m.	Bus Departs for Ste Rose return
12:30 p.m.	Midday Fuel Break - Gagnon Seeds Darren and Ryan Gamache

