The number displayed at each location indicates the duration (in hours) when the minimum air temperature was below 0°C. Information on the map provides regional representation. Field-specific information may be different. Based on weather data recorded from MB Agriculture Weather Program.

For more information, contact your local Manitoba Agriculture office.