

EXTENSION OF COVID-19
GENERAL PREVENTION ORDERS

Manitoba’s current COVID-19 general prevention orders have been extended, effective 12:01 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 11, and will be in place for three weeks until Feb. 1.

Sector	Restrictions
Indoor gatherings in public spaces	Gatherings that include one or more unvaccinated people (if they are 12 years of age or older) are limited to 25 people or 25 per cent of the usual capacity of the space, whichever is lower. Gatherings restricted to fully immunized people and those under 12 years of age are limited to 50 per cent of the usual capacity of the space or 250 persons, whichever is less.
Outdoor gatherings in public spaces	Gatherings that include one or more unvaccinated people (if they are 12 years of age or older) in uncontrolled outdoor public spaces are limited to 50 people. Gatherings restricted to fully immunized people and those under 12 years of age are limited to 50 per cent of the usual capacity of the space or 250 persons, whichever is less.
Indoor gatherings on private property	Private indoor gatherings are limited to 10 additional people plus the household if all are fully vaccinated (youth under the age of 12 are exempt). Private indoor gatherings are limited to five additional people plus the household if any of the individuals are eligible but unvaccinated (youth under the age of 12 are exempt).

Outdoor gatherings on private property	Outdoor gatherings at a private residence are limited to 20 additional people plus the household if all are fully vaccinated (youth under the age of 12 are exempt). Private indoor gatherings are limited to 10 additional people plus the household if any of the individuals are eligible but unvaccinated (youth under the age of 12 are exempt).
Restaurants, licensed premises and food courts	Proof of vaccination is required for those 12 years of age and older. Individuals are required to wear masks but are not required to provide proof of vaccination to enter for the sole purpose of picking up takeout or delivery orders. Restaurants, licensed premises and food courts are limited to 50 per cent capacity and are limited to seated service only with a maximum of 10 people per table. Restaurants, licensed premises and food courts are limited to 50 per cent capacity or 250 persons, whichever is lesser. Liquor sales must end at 10 p.m. daily.
Gyms and fitness centres	Capacity limited to 50 per cent or 250 people, whichever is less, with proof of immunization required everywhere.
Casinos, bingo halls and VLTs	Proof of vaccination is required. Capacity is limited to 50 per cent or 250 people, whichever is less.
Museums and galleries	Museums operate under the requirement to show proof of vaccination (indoors only) when open to the public as a museum.

	Capacity limited to 50 per cent or 250 people, whichever is less, with proof of immunization required everywhere.
Libraries	Limited to 50 per cent capacity.
Professional sports or performing arts events	Limited to 50 per cent capacity or 250 people, whichever is less, with proof of immunization required everywhere.
Movie theatres and concert halls	Limited to 50 per cent capacity or 250 people, whichever is less, with proof of immunization required everywhere.
Weddings and funerals	Permitting indoor public gathering group sizes to 25 people or 25 per cent capacity, whichever is lower, for gatherings that include unvaccinated people who are eligible to be vaccinated. Gatherings restricted to fully immunized people and those under 12 years of age are limited to 50 per cent of the usual capacity of the space or 250 people, whichever is less.
Indoor community, cultural and religious gatherings	Indoor community, cultural and religious gatherings are limited to 25 per cent capacity or a total of 25 people, whichever is lower, when proof of vaccination is not required. Cohorts may be implemented where groups can be physically divided up to a maximum of 10 cohorts or 250 people. Cohorts must not mingle, masks must be worn and physical distancing rules apply. Services restricted to fully immunized people and those under 12 who are not eligible for the vaccine are limited to 50 per cent capacity or 250 people, whichever is less.

Outdoor community, cultural and religious gatherings	Gatherings that include one or more unvaccinated person (if they are 12 years of age or older) are restricted to 50 people in uncontrolled outdoor public spaces. Outdoor gatherings restricted to fully immunized people and those under 12 years of age are limited to 50 per cent of the usual capacity of the space or 250 persons, whichever is less. Drive-in services continue unrestricted.
Personal services	Open without capacity restrictions and physical distancing is required.
Indoor sports and recreation, including dance, theatre and music schools.	Spectators for indoor and outdoor sporting and recreation capacity is reduced to 50 per cent capacity or 250 people, whichever is less. While games and practices can continue, no tournaments will be permitted. No group activities outside of practice time or games, come ready to play and limit group time indoors (e.g. in dressing rooms). Proof of vaccination is required for adult spectators and participants. Children 12 to 17 years of age may be admitted if they provide proof they have received at least one dose of a vaccine or proof of a recent (within 72 hours) negative test. Children under 12 are exempt from the requirement to show proof of vaccination.

	Negative tests need to come from a participating pharmacy or nursing station as provincial testing sites should only be accessed by symptomatic individuals or those who are required to take a PCR test by public health.
Outdoor sports and recreation	While practices can continue, no tournaments will be permitted. No group activities outside of practice time or games, come ready to play and limit group time indoors (e.g. in dressing rooms). Capacity for spectators is limited to 50 per cent or 250 people, whichever is less.
Children's camps	Day camps are limited to no more than 25 campers and camper groups must be cohorted. Overnight camps are prohibited under these orders.
Retail, markets, garden centres and malls	Permitting retail capacity at 50 per cent in the Southern Health – Santé Sud health region. Permitting retail capacity at 100 per cent in the Interlake-Eastern, Northern, Prairie Mountain Health and Winnipeg capital region, including the municipalities of Cartier, Headingly, Macdonald, Ritchot (Niverville/Ritchot), Saint François Xavier and Taché. Physical distancing measures are required. Masks required indoors.
Workplaces	Open without restrictions.
Indoor self-help gatherings	Indoor gathering limits and mask use orders apply.

