Employment for Newcomers in Manitoba

Newcomer candidates represent a significant resource that can bring a wide variety of relevant skills to your company.

Hiring newcomers, many of whom are trained professionals, makes good business sense:

- Internationally trained newcomers can fill your vacancies.
- They offer a range of skills, talent, resources and experiences.
- They may help you to grow your business.

Getting started

Contact Manitoba Start to find a Newcomer who is already registered as looking for work, has the skillset you are looking for and can meet your hiring needs.

Manitoba Start also offers additional resources, programs and information on the documentation required prior to hiring Newcomers, along with contact information for training opportunities, webinars and more.
