

MANITOBA'S MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW BOARD MEMBERS
BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Norm Sims (QC) (Minnedosa) is a lawyer with Sims and Company, a law firm with offices in Minnedosa, Shoal Lake, Birtle, Russell, Rossburn and Strathclair. He has a bachelor of commerce (honours) and a bachelor of laws from the University in Manitoba. In 1992, Sims was appointed a life bencher of the Law Society of Manitoba and currently sits as a permanent member of the Law Society Discipline Committee. He has been active in the Western Manitoba Bar Association since 1981 and is also a member of both the Manitoba and Canadian Bar Associations since 1981. He received his Queen's Counsel appointment in 1994.

Krista Boryskavich (Winnipeg) is the director of legal services and city solicitor for the City of Winnipeg. She is a lawyer by training and holds bachelor of law and master of public administration degrees from the University of Manitoba (U of M).

Ceci Kaufman (QC) (Winnipeg) is the chief legal officer and corporate secretary for People Corporation. She previously served as a sessional professor in the faculty of law at the U of M and chief advisor for the National Bank of Canada. She holds an LLB from the U of M and has served on the boards of St. Paul's High School and the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba.

Christopher Kozier (Winnipeg) is an associate lawyer with Alghoul and Associates. His areas of practice include immigration and international business, real estate, corporate and commercial, and workplace investigation and mediation. He has served on numerous boards including St. Paul's College, the U of M, Sara Riel Inc., Reaching Equality Employment Services and the Manitoba Brain Injury Association.

Robert Olson (Winnipeg) is a bilingual lawyer with Thompson Dorfman Sweatman. His practice is focused in the area of labour and employment. He has significant experience in unionized workplaces and acts primarily for employers, but also unions and employees, and does independent workplace investigations, thereby providing a unique advantage for clients. He also handles pension law issues for clients, in addition to advising and defending employers in workplace safety and health inspections, investigations and charges.

Kyle Mirecki (Winnipeg) is an associate lawyer at MLT Aikins LLP, practising in the areas of securities, corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, and general corporate commercial law. He graduated law school at Robson Hall faculty of law at the U of M. His volunteer experience includes serving as vice-president of finance for the Manitoba Law Students Association and chair of council for the U of M Students' Union.

Maureen Stitt (Brandon) is a former president of the Brandon Festival of the Arts and current board member.

Sharon Bissonnette (Dugald) is the executive director of the Oakbank Springfield Seniors Centre.

Candice Cancade (Steinbach) is an executive assistant with Schinkel Properties Inc. She is also a part-time rural liaison for Siloam Mission in Winnipeg and part-time operations manager for South East Helping Hands in Steinbach. Other volunteer experience includes the South Eastman Mental Health Advisory Council and the South Eastman Region Suicide Prevention Committee.

Aline Nostedt (Winnipeg) is an administrative assistant with Manitoba Livestock Cash Advance. She previously spent eight years with Canada Revenue Agency, where she was the recipient of a long-term achievement award. Nostedt is bilingual in French and English, and has previously volunteered with Girl Guides and at orphanages in Mexico.

Treena Ross (Fraserwood) is an entrepreneur and the owner of Explosive Promotions. She is also an advocate for disabled and disadvantaged people, and the president of Camp KAN-DO Inc., a not-for-profit for special needs children. She has served on the Social Services Appeal Board since 2017.

Pamela McCallum Beazley (Winnipeg) has researched for the Child Maltreatment Division of the Public Health Agency of Canada. Her role there involved developing the Best Practices Guidelines for Child Death Investigation and Review. She holds a master of business administration in health administration from the U of M and previously served as a project manager for the Manitoba Economic Development Board Secretariat. Beazley has also been an active volunteer in Manitoba's schools and children's programs.