

---

HERITAGE GRANT PROGRAM PROJECT FUNDING*Central

- Boundary Trail Heritage Region Inc. – $3,500 to write articles for a local history project
- Boundary Trail Heritage Region Inc. – $5,000 to share expertise regarding artifact display and protection, digitization of materials and publication efforts, and continue to develop regional connections
- Central Manitoba Tourism Inc. – $8,112 to develop heritage tourism content creation and marketing
- Miami Railway Station Museum Association Inc. – $2,312 to develop exhibits for the museum waiting room and caboose
- RM of Montcalm – $7,000 to develop and produce interpretive panels

Eastman

- Corporation du site historique enfant-Jésus Heritage Site Corporation – $7,500 to continue erecting multilingual wayfinding markers along the historic Dawson Trail and develop heritage interpretive exhibits at key points
- Lac du Bonnet Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee – $2,136 to add historic photos to one-room school monuments
- Niverville Communities in Bloom – $517 to develop and produce heritage wall interpretive signs
- Whitemouth River Recreation Commission Inc. – $3,660 to redevelop the Whitemouth heritage driving tour
- Woodridge Community Club Inc. – $2,000 to paint a mural focusing on the area's history and landmarks

Interlake

- 4565119 Manitoba Association Inc. (Interlake Arts Board) – $2,500 to design and paint murals on regional endangered species
- Ducks Unlimited Canada – $5,000 to digitize 200,000 feet of archival film
- RM of St. Clements Heritage Committee – $6,000 to produce remaining four videos planned for the 'Putting Food on the Table' exhibit
- RM of West St. Paul – $2,000 to paint a mural, depicting local history and landmarks

Parkland

- Yachminka Ukrainian Dance Group – $2,000 to begin documentation of the organization's history and develop a website

Westman

- Brandon Museum Inc. – $5,000 to research for the Sound of History, an exhibition about the history of music, bands and musicians of Brandon and western Manitoba
- Brandon University – $10,000 to carry out archaeological research and analysis to illuminate late pre-contact Indigenous cultivation and horticultural activities
- Brandon University Mini University – $8,000 to support the Mini University public archaeology programming
- City of Brandon – $1,459 to support Doors Open Brandon, an event where the public can tour heritage buildings
- RM of Pipestone – $6,545 to develop interpretive signage for the Peanut Line Trail
- Rivers Train Station Restoration Committee – $2,100 to redevelop two websites from the current single website
- Turtle Mountain-Souris Plains Heritage Association – $5,900 to develop and produce a video about a multi-generation farm family

Winnipeg

- Association of Manitoba Museums Inc. – $9,000 to collaborate with 10 museums to add material to a provincewide collections management system
- Bike Winnipeg Inc. – $2,000 to develop and lead a series of history-based bicycle rides in Winnipeg led by experts in the field
- By Your Pants Media Production – $5,000 to edit and produce a documentary about the Icelandic experience in Canada
- Conseil de développement économique des municipalités bilingues du Manitoba inc. – $5,000 to continue the project to develop and install panels interpreting the Fort Ellice site
- Dugald Costume Collection – $2,521 to improve climate control in order to preserve the collection
- Jewish Heritage Centre of Western Canada Inc. – $9,000 to refurbish the exhibits of the Freeman Family Foundation Holocaust Education Centre
- Kroeger Clocks Heritage Foundation – $8,000 to produce an exhibit in partnership with the Manitoba Museum, on Mennonite clocks
- La Maison Gabrielle-Roy Inc. – $6,000 to produce a bilingual exhibition on the work and life of Gabrielle Roy, with a travelling component

- La Société historique de Saint-Boniface – $10,000 to describe photographs and slides in English and French to increase accessibility for Indigenous people and create an inventory of records about First Nations communities
- La Société historique de Saint-Boniface – $8,000 to write or update text for the new Centre du Patrimoine website
- Lake Winnipeg Foundation – $7,500 to create videos highlighting the history and importance of Lake Winnipeg and the work to monitor its water quality
- Manitoba Archaeological Society Inc. – $8,512 to continue a public archaeology project around late pre-contact Indigenous cultivation and horticulture
- Manitoba Crafts Museum and Library Inc. – $6,250 to research collection items that represent BIPOC artists, communities or cultures, to document and make these objects through exhibits, programming and social media activities
- Manitoba Genealogical Society Inc. – $6,500 to modernize and improve the Manitoba Name Index, a database of over 1.5 million items
- Manitoba Historical Society – $5,000 to hold a heritage summit in 2021
- Manitoba Naturalist Society Inc. – $4,500 to conduct an informal science-based environmental education program, focusing on the traditional Indigenous relationship to the land for 500 inner-city Grade 4 students
- Manitoba Sports Hall of Fame and Museum Inc. – $4,000 to develop and expand museum's digital website content
- Matthew David Cohen – $5,000 to create a semi-permanent light installation that recreates several ghost signs
- Nellie McClung Foundation – $5,000 to translate the citations for the Manitoba 150 Women Trailblazer award winners and develop a virtual book for the website
- The Manitoba Museum – $7,000 to enhance the Urban Gallery by showcasing cultural diversity and using new technology
- Video Pool Inc. – $7,000 to build improve accessibility to the Video Pool Media Arts Centre and the Winnipeg Film Group websites
- Winnipeg Architecture Foundation Inc. – $7,000 to research and write a new series of monographs about Winnipeg architecture
- Youth Parliament of Manitoba Inc. – $2,650 to produce a book about Canada's oldest youth parliament in honour of its centenary

Other

- Canadian Heritage Photography Foundation – $7,000 to digitizing the photography of George Hunter (in Manitoba from the 1940s to the 1980s)