

.....

IMMIGRATION ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBERS

Twenty Manitobans have been appointed to Manitoba's Immigration Advisory Council:

- Lana Adeleye-Olusae (Winnipeg), pastor and human resource consultant, and involved with the African Communities of Manitoba and the Nigerian Association of Manitoba;
- Andrea Aiello (Winnipeg), director of workforce development, Canadian Manufacturers and Exporters, and a human resources professional;
- Yasmin Ali (Winnipeg), founding member and board president, Canadian Muslim Women's Institute, and a full-time community volunteer for more than 30 years;
- Michael Benarroch (Winnipeg), president and vice-chancellor, University of Manitoba and professor of business administration, Asper School of Business;
- Liz Choi (Winnipeg), chief executive officer of ECG Education Canada Group, a parent company of Robertson College, and chair of the board of directors, Winnipeg Chamber of Commerce;
- Chad Friesen (Altona), president and chief executive officer, Friesens Corporation;
- Annie Henry (Winnipeg), business development manager, Tourism Winnipeg, and member of various boards such as Enterprises Riel and Sport Tourism Canada;
- Kerri Korabelnikov (West St. Paul), dean, School of Education, Arts and Sciences, Red River College Polytech, with extensive experience in English-language training and pathways to employment serving newcomers and immigrants;
- Shauna Labman (Winnipeg), associate professor of human rights, Global College, University of Winnipeg, and an active member of the Canadian Association of Refugee Lawyers;
- Baerbel Langner (Winnipeg), in-house legal counsel, HyLife Foods, with more than 25 years of professional experience in the area of citizenship and immigration law;
- Shane Li (Winnipeg), chief executive officer and president, Red Leaf Capital, and president, North Forge East – North Forge Technology Exchange;
- Dr. Ghulam Memon (Winnipeg), a family physician practicing in Winnipeg and president, Pakistan Winnipeg Society;
- Debasish Mukherjee (Beausejour), a small business owner in Beausejour who is active in the Indian community and is on the board of Beausejour Brokenhead Development Corporation;
- Enver Naidoo (Brandon), executive director, Westman Immigrant Services, and co-founder, Interdisciplinary Immigration Research Network;

- Rosanna Pancotto (Winnipeg), immigration consultant, Prairie Sky Immigration;
- Gary Sarcida (Winnipeg), immigration lawyer, PKF Law, who currently sits on the board of the Winnipeg Art Gallery and the Manitoba Human Rights Adjudication Panel;
- Paramjit Shahi (Winnipeg), president, Winnipeg South Community Centre, and also a business consultant and respected community leader;
- Vicki Sinclair (Winnipeg), executive director, Manitoba Association of Newcomer Serving Organizations, an umbrella organization for settlement service providers;
- Bramwell Strain (Winnipeg), president and chief executive officer, Business Council of Manitoba; and
- Denys Volkov (Winnipeg); executive director, Association of Manitoba Municipalities.