

Canada

Manitoba

Winnipeg

Backgrounder

Rennie Zegalski is a founding member and principal of Capital Commercial Real Estate Services. He brings over 22 years of expertise in the Canadian commercial real estate market.

Zegalski is active in the Winnipeg business community, currently serving on the boards of CentreVenture, West End Business Improvement Zone (past chair), Royal Aviation Museum of Western Canada (vice-president) and the Winnipeg Santa Claus Parade Committee (chair). He is also past chair of the board of governors of the University of Manitoba, past chair of the Winnipeg Convention Centre and past president of the University of Manitoba Alumni Association. For the past few years, he has been a co-agent in the leasing of the new Seasons of Tuxedo Shopping Centre/Ikea project in Winnipeg, one of the largest shopping centre developments in Canada.

Zegalski holds an honours bachelor of commerce in finance and marketing from the University of Manitoba.

He has been married to Allison for the past 22 years. They have a 14-year-old son and a ten-year-old daughter.