

NAME: HEATH, Joseph Thomas PARISH: Mill End Farm, ENTERED SERVICE: 21 Sept. 1843 DATES: Bapt. Nov. 1814
 West Wycombe, Bucks, ENGLAND (F.16/2 fo. 196A) d. 7 March 1849

Appointments & Service

Puget Sound Ag. Co.	Position	Farm	HBCA Reference
1843, 21 Sept	engaged to go to Columbia in Brothers , which had an accident in the Downs		F.11/1, p.65-66; A.10/17 fo.92; HBRS p. 315
1843, 24 Sept 1844-1849	entered the Cowlitz in the Downs as a passenger for Columbia River settler & farmer	Steilacum	C.1/246; F.11/1,p.64 Search file*; F.11/1, pp.86-88,90; F.12/2, pp.32,32d.
1849, 7 March	Died in debt at Fort Nisqually after a year of indigestion, swollen legs, chest pains		F.12/2, fos.316-320; F.11/1,p.119, 120, 113; James R. Gibson, Farming the Frontier... , Vancouver: UBC Press, a985, p. 116.
1849, September	The farm buildings were rented to the U.S. Government for the use of the military		HBRS Vol. XXXII p. 32 note 4

Parents: William Read Heath and Elizabeth married at Henley
 Siblings: William Heath (bapt. Aug. 1803); Mary (bapt. Dec.1804); Henry (bapt. Aug. 1806); Ellen (bapt. April 1808); Thomas Mason (International Genealogical Index); Fanny (who married George Fathorn in March 1839) (E.31/2/1)

*Search file: 'NISQUALLY FORT'

Joseph Thomas Heath, Memoirs of Nisqually, Fairfield WA: Ye Galleon Press, 1979.

Cecelia Carpenter, Fort Nisqually: A Documented History of Indian & British Interaction, Tahoma Research Service, 1986, pp. 128-132.

Bowsfield, Hartwell, Fort Victoria Letters, 1846-1851, Winnipeg: Hudson's Bay Record Society, 1979, Volume XXX p. 32 note 4

