

NAME: HODGSON, James PARISH: Hudson Bay ENTERED SERVICE: 1800 (A.16/6, fo. 161) DATES: b. ca. 1785

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*	Position	Post	District	HBCA Reference
*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May
Pre - 1800	At School in England+
1800, 31 May – 21 Sept.	Travelled Gravesend to Moose on King George			C.1/408
1800 - 1810	Assistant Writer & Trader	Albany	Albany River	A.16/6, fo.161; B.3/d/117, fo. 55 B.3/d/119, fo.53; B.3/d/122, 125 B.3/a/113, fo.19
1810, 19 August	Departed for Moose			A.30/12-13; B.3/d/133, fo.10d
1811 - 1814	Clerk	Albany		A.30/13
1814, 2 July	Discharged, went to join his father, John, in Canada

Father: John Hodgson

Wife: Caroline Goodwin, dau. Robert Goodwin (d. August 23, 1832)*

Search File "Hodgson, John"
"Hodgson, James"
RG 20/4/116 Letter dated 26
October 1934 states "Caroline
Hodgson – née Goodwin – died
Of Cholera at Fort Coulonge on August 23, 1832" ----

*See Search File: "Hodgson, James" for rationale of Caroline being the wife of James

+See J. Brown, "A Colony of Very Useful Hands", The Beaver, Spring 1977, p. 40.

