Information on family from indexes to Red River Censuses and Anglican Parish Registers in Provincial Archives:

Soon after his arrival in Red River two children by 'a native woman', Betsy & William, were baptized on 21 Sept. 1834.

Nancy [Ann], another child by 'a native woman' was baptized on 2 Aug. 1835. An unnamed daughter was baptized on 21 Oct. 1837.

Her mother is neither named nor described. [Could this daughter be Frances or Fanny, who married William Robertson?]

Jane, the daughter of Daniel and Mary Lillie, was baptized on 9 Jan. 1840. On 17 Dec. 1840 Daniel married Mary Anne Richards, described as a half-breed. Their son James was baptized on 13 November 1842, and John George [George] and Mary Anne on 19 Jan. 1847. Mary Anne Richards Lillie had been buried the previous day, aged 35 years. She had been baptized on 2 July 1844.
