

NAME: McKAY, Donald PARISH: Clyne, Sutherlandshire ENTERED SERVICE: 12 August 1790 DATES: b. ca. 1753
(Mad or Le Malin) [also MacKAY] (A.16/6 p.15) d. 26 June 1833

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*	Position	Post	District	HBCA Reference
1779-1781	in service of John Ross			Duckworth; E.223/1-2
1785 - 1790	In service of competing traders.			Champlain Society Vol.XXII, p.473
1790 - 1794	Inland Trader		Albany	A.16/6,p.15
1794, 7 September	home on the King George			A.16/6,p.15
1795, 6 June	sailed on Prince of Wales from Gravesend to Albany			Duckworth
1795 - 1799	Inland Trader		Albany	A.16/6,pp.89,122
1799, 15 September	home from York Factory on King George			A.16/6,p.122
1799 - 1806	lived at Ashcoilmore near Kintradwel			Duckworth
1806	sailed by King George to Churchill			Duckworth
1806 - 1809	re-engaged as inland trader		Churchill	Search file: 'MCKAY, DONALD (MAD)'
1809 - 1822	lived in Scotland until he emigrated to Nova Scotia			Duckworth

Wife: (1) Hannah, Daughter of James Sutherland (d. 1802 near York Factory)

Children: Donald Jr. (ca. 1791-1884); William (27 March 1793-13 Jan. 1887)

B.3/a/100,fos.5d-9

Search file: 'MCKAY, DONALD (MAD)'

Wife: (2) Mary Mackenzie (Scottish wife)

Children: daughter; John (ca. 1811-1885); William

Search file: 'McKAY, DONALD ('MAD McKAY)'

Biog: DCB Vol. VI.

Harry W. Duckworth, "The Madness of Donald Mackay", The Beaver, June-July/1988 pp.25-42; December 1988/Jan. 1989, p.62

E.223/1-4 "Narrative of Donald McKay" and other items

