A graduate druggist (Province of Alberta), Victor Pauls was previously by Liggett's [drug Store] in Edmonton as a chemist for six years from February 1929 through August 1934, and Howey Gold Mines Limited at Red Lake, Ontario, as a mill worker immediately prior to hiring on as clerk at the Hudson's Bay Company store in Red Lake.

RG3/41A/4

Married, no children (as at March 4, 1936). He and his wife lived at Sioux Lookout, Ontario, prior to moving to Red Lake.

RG3/41A/4

District Inspector James Glass wrote of Pauls in a November 1936 staff report:

RG3/41A/4

"...pleasing personality, inspiring confidence, average energy, fair ability as an operator. I do not think this man is satisfied with his present work. I do not see any future for him in the grocery field. Would he be of any value as a chemist or in any drug sundries department at any point?"
