

NAME: SMITH, James

PARISH: Great Slave Lake

ENTERED SERVICE: 13 August 1881

DATES: 1861-1912

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*:	Position:	Post:	District:	HBCA Reference:
*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May
1881, 13 August	Signed contract as apprentice interpreter & general servant at Fort Chipewyan			B.239/u/3,#2269; A.32/54, fo.100
1885, 24 March	Signed contract as interpreter & general servant, Fort Vermillion			B.239/u/3,#2269;A.32/54, fo. 101
1887, 30 May	Signed contract as interpreter, Fort Chipewyan			B.239/u/3, #2269
1889-1890	Free			B.235/g/28

His place of birth and area of employment suggest that he was the James Sinclair Smith who was the son of William Robert Smith, Jr. [see Biog.] Gail Morin's Métis families give his dates as 1861-24 May 1912. He married Mary Anne Cardinal at Fort Vermillion ,1886, and they had five daughters and three sons (p.1112)

Filename: Smith, James (1861-1912) (fl. 1881-1889); AM 2000/10

