Executors of his will were William Hemmings Cook and Captain James Sutherland, his father, also called the Hon. James Sutherland.

Cash was paid to his children at York Factory from 1810 - 1815.

James & William Sutherland received goods at the expense of his estate, 1819-1822.

He may have been the Sutherland who was the first husband of Nancy Cook, who married William Garrioch.

*The records are not consistent in showing his parish or his age. It is not certain that the man who died in 1806 is the same as the sailor & sloop master who went home in 1794.
