UNIT NUMBER:

ANSON NORTHP (1859-1860)  AREA OF SERVICE: RED RIVER (1861)
Named for the Captain, Anson Northup (1817- )
THE PIONEER (1861) named for her position and her mission
GOVERNOR RAMSEY, NORTH STAR (pre-1858)

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION:
Steamer

Construction:
Designer and builder: Built on the Red River.
Dimensions: Hull 90 feet long, stem to stern 100 feet, beam 24 feet.
Draft:
Number of passengers: Number of crew:
Owners: Anson Northup, 1858-1859; J.C. & H.C. Burbank, St. Paul, Minnesota, 1859-1861;
Hudson's Bay Company, 1861.
Plans:
Power:
Registered:
Speed:
Tonnage: 75 tons.

HISTORY:
1861 Name changed to The Pioneer; Hudson's Bay Company acquired vessel ("The Anson Northup", 1982, 1985).
1870's Her boiler, which was transferred to White Horse Plains, was reused in the Chief Commissioner.

MASTERS:
1859 Anson Northup Nor’Wester, 15 June 1961

BIBLIOGRAPHY:

PHOTOGRAPHS AND DOCUMENTARY ART:
P-453

REFERENCES:  MICROFILM REELS: