Important Information

The Residential Tenancies Branch hears appeals of fines under section 218 of The Condominium Act.

Giving the Condominium Corporation the Notice of Appeal:

A unit owner must give the Notice of Appeal to the condominium corporation by:

- handing it to a director of the condominium corporation; or
- mailing it by ordinary mail to the condominium corporation at its most recent mailing address (note: the notice of appeal will be considered served on the fifth day after it is mailed); or
- faxing it to the condominium corporation at the fax number provided by the condominium corporation for receiving such notices; or
- by putting it through the mail slot or in the mailbox, if any, used by the corporation for receiving such notices.

The branch will not issue an Order against a Condominium Corporation that does not receive the Notice of Appeal at least five days before the hearing.

The unit owner must give the Condominium Corporation all of the following documents together:

1. Notice of Appeal
2. Important Information
3. Hearing and Mediation Fact Sheet
3. Offer to Settle

The branch will ask the unit owner to show that the condominium corporation received the Notice of Appeal at least five days before the hearing.

If a unit owner has made a reasonable attempt to serve this Notice of Appeal to the condominium corporation but has not been able to, they may call the Residential Tenancies Branch for information on other ways to serve the Notice of Appeal or to reschedule the hearing.

Evidence Requirements

If you have evidence you would like the RTB to consider at the hearing, at least two full business days before the hearing, you must submit:

- One copy to the RTB; this can be sent electronically to rtbevidence@gov.mb.ca.
- One copy to the other party.

Evidence not received by the RTB or the other party at least two full business days prior to the hearing may not be accepted.

If you are the claimant or applicant, you must provide a completed Declaration of Service form to show that you served the other person at least five days before the hearing. A Commissioner for Oaths must witness the declaration.

Mediation

Mediation is a service the branch offers for people who want to try to settle the appeal without a hearing. Mediation is a confidential process that can take place in meetings, conference calls or separate telephone conversations with a mediator. For more information, please call the branch office nearest you or visit <http://www.gov.mb.ca/cca/rtb/resource.html>.

Public Record

When the Residential Tenancies Branch holds a hearing, it issues an Order stating the reasons for the decision. This Order is a matter of public record. Mediated agreements are confidential and not a matter of public record.
