FUEL TAX EXEMPTION FOR STATUS INDIANS AND INDIAN BANDS

This Notice explains the fuel tax exemption and documentation requirements for fuel purchased by a Status Indian or Indian Band from retail fuel dealers located on a reserve.

TAX EXEMPT SALES AND DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

Fuel sold to a Status Indian or Indian Band, for their own use or consumption, is exempt when the purchaser takes possession of the fuel at time of sale on a reserve. The following documentation must be provided by the purchaser and maintained by the retail fuel dealer to support all tax exempt sales:

- Status Indian's name, or Band name when the purchaser is an Indian Band,
- Status Indian's Certificate of Indian Status Registry No. or Temporary Confirmation of Registration Document registration number, or Band number when the purchaser is an Indian Band,
- Status Indian's signature, or authorized Band representative's signature when the purchaser is an Indian Band.

RETAIL FUEL DEALERS - TAX REFUNDS ON EXEMPT SALES

Under Manitoba's First Nation Fuel Tax Refund Program, fuel tax refunds are paid to on-reserve retail fuel dealers for tax exempt fuel sold to Status Indians and Bands, upon submission of the required documentation. Contact the Winnipeg Taxation Division office below for more information.

TAXABLE FUEL SALES

The following retail fuel sales are always taxable:

- Fuel sold to a Status Indian or Indian Band off reserve,
- Fuel sold to purchasers who are not a Status Indian or Band,
- Fuel sold to corporations (including corporations owned by a Status Indian or Band),
