NOTICE Fuel 15-03
The Fuel Tax Act
Issued December 2015

INTERNATIONAL FUEL TAX AGREEMENT (IFTA) ROADSIDE ENFORCEMENT

All IFTA jurisdictions have the authority to inspect motor vehicles operating on their roads to determine if the operator/carrier is properly licensed under IFTA and if the vehicle has the proper IFTA credentials on board.

In Manitoba, the Tax Administration and Miscellaneous Taxes Act (TAMTA) provides the authority to designate Tax Officers for the purpose of enforcement of that Act, including as it relates to requirements under IFTA.

Effective June 1, 2015, Manitoba Infrastructure and Transportation, Motor Carrier Enforcement Officers, have joined Manitoba Finance, Special Investigations Officers as Tax Officers for the enforcement of the following TAMTA offenses as they relate to IFTA:

- 77(2) a) (i) As the operator of a vehicle being operated under a carrier license, fail to carry a copy of the license in the vehicle's cab.
- (ii) As the operator of a vehicle being operated under a carrier license, fail to produce a copy of the license to a tax officer when required.
- (iii) As the operator of a vehicle being operated under a carrier license, fail to ensure that carrier decals are properly affixed to the vehicle when required.

- 77(2) (a.1) (i) As the owner of a vehicle being operated under a carrier license, fail to ensure that the operator carries a copy of the license in the vehicle's cab.
- (ii) As the owner of a vehicle being operated under a carrier license, fail to ensure that carrier decals are properly affixed to the vehicle when required.

- 77(2) b) Fail to remove carrier decals as and when required to do so.
