Manitoba Association of Registered Respiratory Therapists - Action Plan

In response to the recommendations made by the Fair Registration Practices Office, The Manitoba Association of Registered Respiratory Therapists committed to the following action plan in November 2022:

	Recommendation	Action(s)	Anticipated	Status Update
1.	Continue to review and improve applicant information on assessment and registration processes and requirements, consulting with FRPO when possible.	<ol> <li>Revise the current Internationally Educated Applicant Guide with a focus on:         <ul> <li>enhancing the instructions and requirements</li> <li>reviewing for the use of plain language</li> <li>introducing checklists and bullet points to itemise requirements</li> <li>using visuals, charts, diagrams, and illustrations where appropriate</li> <li>incorporating all application streams into one primary document to create an Application Guide that includes a section for each the following areas: domestic applicants from within Manitoba; domestic applicants from a self-regulated jurisdiction from within Canada; domestic applicants from within a jurisdiction within Canada that is not self-regulated; and internationally educated applicants</li> </ul> </li> </ol>	May 2023	1. Completed.
		<ol> <li>Continue to improve the information provided on MARRT's website including an FAQ section for applicants to MARRT.</li> </ol>	Ongoing	2. Ongoing – MARRT continues to update and revise information on the website to provide clear communication and revisions to any pertinent content areas.
		3. Meet with the Dean, College of Rehabilitation Sciences to discuss opportunities for bridging or gap training within the University of Manitoba Respiratory Therapy program to address remedial gaps identified through the assessment process.	Meeting date TBD	3. Completed

Recommendation	Action(s)	Anticipated	Status Update
	4. Create Language Proficiency Policy.	April 2023	4. Completed
	5. Labour Mobility — As members of the National Alliance of Respiratory Therapy Regulated Bodies (NARTRB), labour mobility is strongly supported through a harmonised approach that is currently in place. The form and process used when RRTs move from one self-regulated jurisdiction to another is currently under review and it is anticipated that the revised form will be ready for approval at the spring 2023 NARTRB meeting.	Spring 2023 — NARTRB meeting date June 10, 2023  Fall NARTRB meeting date is scheduled for November 15, 2023  Spring NARTRB meeting is scheduled for May 1 – 2, 2024	5. In-Process – Form developed and to be presented at the NARTRB spring meeting scheduled for May 1 and 2, 2024 for final approval.