

Disability Supports for First Nations People Living On-Reserve

What disability supports may be available for First Nations people living on-reserve?

Disability supports for First Nations people living on reserve are provided through the Government of Canada. The following websites have information on some of the supports that may be available.

- Indigenous Services Canada (ISC)

These sites have information on ISC programs:

- Assisted Living Program – www.sac-isc.gc.ca/eng/1100100035250/1533317440443
- On Reserve Income Assistance Program – www.sac-isc.gc.ca/eng/1100100035256/1533307528663
- Education Programs – www.aadnc-aandc.gc.ca/eng/1100100033601/1100100033605

- Health Canada

hc-sc.gc.ca/

These sites have information on Health Canada programs:

- Non-Insured Health Benefits – www.sac-isc.gc.ca/eng/1572537161086/1572537234517
- Home and Community Care Program – www.canada.ca/en/health-canada/services/home-continuing-care/home-community-care.html
- Family Health – www.sac-isc.gc.ca/eng/1581521891928/1581521943655

Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC)

- Office for Disability Issues – www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/programs/disability.html

Other services and supports may also be available, depending on the resources in each community.

