

Part 1

A • Instructions
This form is used to apply for the Pandemic Staffing Support Benefit. The Pandemic Staffing Support Benefit will provide assistance to organizations for their additional staffing costs that cannot be accommodated from within their existing revenue / resources as a result of the COVID Pandemic. The Pandemic Staffing Support Benefit is intended to assist in offsetting the following costs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overtime – the portion of staffing costs related to overtime worked by employees but not the cost if the staff worked regular hours. i.e. the 50% increase in hourly wages would be covered but not the regular wage. • Sick Time – sick time expenses paid to staff when they have exhausted their sick time benefits as a result of COVID. Staff are expected to access other available benefits first, including the Canada Recovery Sickness Benefit. • Staff Replacement Costs – costs in excess of regular staffing costs to replace staff including use of casual staff and external health services companies. Eligibility To be eligible for the Pandemic Staffing Support Benefit, organizations must be funded by the Department of Families for the delivery of staffed placement services on behalf of Child and Family Services. Organizational surplus will be considered and those organizations that maintain an operating surplus equivalent to two months of Department of Families revenue or more may be deemed ineligible. Application Organizations can apply monthly and must complete all sections of the application including submission of all required information. Efforts will be made to provide assistance within two weeks of receiving the application unless the organization can demonstrate an urgent need for immediate financial assistance. Organizations are required to submit their monthly operating statement to demonstrate that their need for financial assistance is real and immediate. The Department may also request additional information, if required, to process the application.
