JURISDICTION OF THE SOCIAL SERVICES APPEAL BOARD

The Social Services Appeal Board is the independent appeal body for the majority of programs and services provided by the Department of Families. The Board reports directly to the Minister of Families.

The Board was first established in 1959 by The Department of Welfare Act. In 1974, that Act was repealed and the Board continued under the provisions within The Social Services Administration Act. On February 18, 2002, The Social Services Appeal Board (SSAB) Act was proclaimed.

Under The Social Services Appeal Board Act, the Board has the ability to determine its own administrative policies and procedures. A series of information bulletins has been developed and made available in order to provide this information to the public.

The Board's decisions cannot be overturned by the minister's office. Only the Board, through a reconsideration of its decision, or the Court of Appeal, may overturn a decision.

There are several different issues that can be appealed. These are summarized below:

Adoption Agency Licensing

Under Section 9 of The Adoption Act, an individual may file an appeal with the Appeal Board if the director refuses to issue a licence for an adoption agency. An individual may also file an appeal if a licence that was previously issued has been suspended, cancelled or not renewed.

Child Care Facility Licensing

A person who is refused a licence for the operation of a child care facility other than a foster home or whose licence is suspended, cancelled or refused renewal may appeal this decision to the Appeal Board under Section 8(5) of The Child and Family Services Act.

Child Care Licensing and Subsidies

Section 20 of The Community Child Care Standards Act allows the Appeal Board to hear appeals on the following four issues:

- the refusal to issue a licence to a child care facility
- the suspension or revocation of a child care facility licence
- the imposition of terms or conditions on a child care facility licence
- the denial or amount of a child care subsidy

Financial Assistance Programs

Employment and Income Assistance Program AND Rent Assist

Subsection 9(3) of The Manitoba Assistance Act gives an individual the right to appeal to the Appeal Board for the following reasons:

- a. he or she was not allowed to apply or re-apply for income assistance or general assistance or shelter assistance
- b. his or her request for income assistance, general assistance or shelter assistance or for an increase in income assistance, general assistance or shelter assistance was not decided upon within a reasonable time
- c. his or her application for income assistance, general assistance, or shelter assistance was denied
- d. his or her income assistance, general assistance or shelter assistance was cancelled, suspended, varied or withheld
- e. the amount of income assistance, general assistance or shelter assistance granted is insufficient to meet his or her needs

55 PLUS Junior Component

The Junior Component of the 55 PLUS Program provides applicants with the right to appeal to the Appeal Board if an applicant is told that he or she is not eligible to receive benefits under the 55 PLUS Program. An appeal may also be filed if an individual disagrees with the level of benefits that he or she is receiving under the program. The right to appeal for these reasons is granted under Section 9 of the Income Supplement for Persons Not Eligible for Old Age Security Benefits (55 PLUS) regulation of The Social Services Administration Act.

Manitoba Prenatal Benefit

If an individual disagrees with the assessment or re-assessment of his or her Manitoba Prenatal Benefit, the individual can appeal the decision under Section 12 of the Manitoba Prenatal Benefit regulation under The Social Services Administration Act.

Residential Care Facility Licensing

A person may appeal to the Appeal Board, the Department's decision to deny, suspend or cancel a licence for a residential care facility. An individual may also file an appeal with the Appeal Board if a letter of approval relating to a residential care facility is cancelled or suspended. The right to appeal these decisions for adult facilities is granted under Section 13 of The Social Services Administration Act.

marketAbilities Program (Eligibility)

The Appeal Board hears appeals regarding the marketAbilities Program. An appeal may be filed if the director refuses an application on the grounds that the applicant does not meet the eligibility criteria for enrolment. The right to appeal this decision is granted under Section 6 of the Vocational Rehabilitation of Disabled Persons regulation under The Social Services Administration Act.

Community Living disABILITY Services (Eligibility and Individual Care Plan)

The Appeal Board is also responsible for hearing appeals regarding The Vulnerable Persons Living with a Mental Disability Act. Section 16 of the Act allows individuals to appeal when a person's eligibility for entrance into the program is denied, or there is a dispute concerning an individual's support services plan.

THE APPEAL AND HEARING PROCESS

Appeals are accepted by mail, fax, or in person at the Appeal Board office. An appeal can be made in the form of a handwritten letter or by filling out the Notice of Appeal form. The Appeal must be in writing and submitted within 30 days from the time the appellant receives the decision they are appealing, although the Social Services Appeal Board (SSAB) may extend this time period.

Once an appeal is received, a copy is faxed to the respondent (the person who made the decision). The respondent is required to prepare a report outlining why the decision was made, and to include any documented evidence upon which the decision was made.

A copy of the respondent's report and a Notice of Hearing is mailed to the appellant. The SSAB is required to hold the hearing within 30 days after the appeal is received, unless the appellant requests a longer time.

The Appeal Board has the power to summon witnesses if required.

The appellant may bring a person to the appeal to support them or help them present their case, but they are not required to.

At the hearing, three members of the SSAB will sit as a panel to hear the appeal. The appellant is required to attend, as is a representative for the Department. Each party provides a short presentation, and the Board may ask any questions they need in order to make their decision. The Board's decision is made in private following the hearing, and a letter with the Board's decision and the reasons for the decision is mailed to the appellant within 15 days.

Decisions made by the SSAB are subject to reconsideration or application for leave to appeal from the Court of Appeal.

More detailed information about the SSAB's Policies and Procedures can be found at: <http://www.gov.mb.ca/fs/ssab/index.html>.

SUMMARY OF ADVISORY ACTIVITIES

Under The Social Services Appeal Board Act, the Appeal Board has the responsibility to advise and make recommendations about matters that relate to social services provided under the designated Acts. The Appeal Board met three times during the 2015/16 fiscal year to consider issues that arose during appeal hearings.

Access to basic transportation continues to be a frequently appealed issue of Employment and Income Assistance program recipients. The Board raised this issue previously and met with the minister to recommend that access to transportation necessary to get to appointments, attend support meetings, access recreational opportunities, conduct daily errands, shop for groceries, attend community or school events, or visit family, should be considered a basic need for income assistance recipients. Rather than allowing greater flexibility in the issuance of transportation funds, the program has strictly limited the provision of transportation to confirmed medical appointments or education that has been supported by an approved plan.

In the previous fiscal year the Board had received no appeals from persons residing in the Northern Region of Manitoba and was concerned that the right to appeal was not accessible enough to persons in the North. Through meetings and discussions with community groups, a meeting with the minister, and a Departmental awareness of the issue, the Social Services Appeal Board received 10 appeals in the 2015/16 fiscal year. The Board will continue to monitor and find cost effective ways of increasing accessibility to the appeal process for persons in the Northern Region.
