

Manitoba Housing

Subletting

Subletting a subsidized housing unit is not allowed under The Residential Tenancies Act.

When a leaseholder no longer is in need of their unit, the unit is made available for the next eligible applicant.

If you have questions about any of the above information please contact your Property Manager or Tenant Services Coordinator.

Available in alternate format on request.