

To honor all of creation is to have RESPECT

Treasure the Elders who are part of creation and who give us respect and life

COURAGE is to face life with integrity

Continuing what you believe and standing strong, being brave and encouraging others will give us integrity in our outgoing ways

HONESTY in facing a situation is to be brave

Courage, bravery, honesty and truthfulness in a situation means you are accepting your true self

HUMILITY is to see yourself as a sacred part of creation

Being yourself is important in the world as a leader for the people with humility and truth

TRUTH is to know all these things

Always stay truthful to yourself in an honest, smart and good way to be a true leader of the truth.

To cherish knowledge is to know WISDOM

By listening to the wise Elders and studying knowledge, we will understand and cherish knowledge

To find LOVE is to know peace

A special, safe and peaceful protection which unites two people who show care will give you love and freedom for yourself and without judgment
