REGULATION AND MANAGEMENT OF THE HOUSE

SESSIONAL CALENDAR

Sitting periods

2(1) The House may meet at any time during the following sitting periods, except during the Spring Sittings when the House must begin to meet on the first Wednesday in March:

November Sittings

From Tuesday following the Remembrance Day week as described in sub-rule (2)(a) to the first Thursday in December.

Spring Sittings

From the first Wednesday in March to the first sitting day in June.

Fall Sittings

From the first Wednesday in October to Thursday of the week prior to the Remembrance Day Week.

Within these periods, the House is to meet on a day fixed by the Speaker at the Government's request and, unless adjourned earlier by order of the House, is to be adjourned by the Speaker, without a motion for adjournment on the applicable day. The House then stands adjourned to the call of the Speaker.

The Government may call the House into session for four additional sitting days in June after the first sitting day in June to complete consideration of Specified Bills. On the last of these four sitting days the remaining stages of Specified Bills not dealt with by the usual hour of adjournment will have all remaining questions put to a vote following the provisions outlined in sub-rule (15). The House will not rise until royal assent has been granted.

If the day of the week on which Remembrance Day falls prevents the House from sitting for seventeen days in the Fall Sittings, the House may extend daily sittings until 10:00 p.m. Each of these extended sitting days shall count as two sitting days for the purpose of achieving seventeen sitting days.

These extended sitting days may be held at any point in the Fall Sittings for the business of supply and passage of The Budget Implementation and Tax Statutes Amendment Act and to achieve the following Completion Days for Designated Bills:

- Second Reading per sub-rule (17)
- Committee Stage per sub-rule (18)
- Report Stage per sub-rule (19)
- Concurrence and Third Reading per sub-rule (20).

On the last Thursday sitting prior to the Remembrance Day Week, the House will not adjourn until the questions have been put and Royal Assent granted for the following items:

- (a) the Designated Bills;
- (b) the Business of Supply set out in sub-rule 76(1) including The Loan Act and The Appropriation Act; and
- (c) The Budget Implementation and Tax Statutes Amendment Act.

Any remaining steps for these items not dealt with 60 minutes prior to the usual adjournment hour will have all remaining questions put to a vote following the provisions outlined in sub-rules (21), (23) and (24).

Constituency Weeks

2(2) The House shall not meet during the following Constituency Weeks:

- (a) the week in which Remembrance Day falls if it falls on a weekday, or the week following Remembrance Day if it falls on a Saturday or Sunday ("Remembrance Day week");
- (b) the week designated under The Public Schools Act as a spring break or vacation ("Spring constituency week");
- (c) the week in which May 1 falls if it falls on a weekday, or the week following May 1 if it falls on a Saturday or Sunday ("May constituency week");

Recall of the House

2(3) If the Government advises the Speaker that the public interest requires the House to meet at any time because of an emergency or extraordinary circumstances, a reason for the recall must be provided. The Speaker must advise the Members that the House is to meet at the time specified by the Government and of the reason for the recall.

Recalled House may meet for up to three weeks

2(4) When recalled under sub-rule (3), the House is to begin to meet at the specified time, and unless adjourned earlier by order of the House, is to be adjourned by the Speaker, without a motion for adjournment at the usual adjournment time on the twenty-first calendar day after it was recalled. The House then stands adjourned to the call of the Speaker.

Further recall of the House

2(5) If the House is adjourned in accordance with sub-rule (4), the House must not be recalled again under sub-rule (3) until after the House has been in recess for a period of one week.

Recall not prevented

Business not to stand over

38(6) Any debate on a motion made under sub-rule (1) is terminated when the time allotted for the debate has expired, or when the House adjourns on the day of the debate prior to the expiration of the two-hour time limit, and shall not be continued or resumed at the next or any subsequent sitting of the House.

CHAPTER III

RULES OF DEBATE

MEMBERS SPEAKING

Order in addressing the Chair

39 Every Member desiring to speak shall rise in his or her place and address himself or herself to the Speaker.

Tabling documents

40(1) A Member presenting a report or document to the House must state that he or she is “tabling” the report or document.

Sufficient Copies

40(2) Members must provide sufficient copies of any report or document that is provided to the House for tabling. Sufficient copies will be determined by the Speaker in consultation with the House Leaders of all Recognized Parties.

No requirement to table documents twice

40(3) Members are not required to table reports or documents that have already been tabled or are already part of the public record.

Recorded only once

40(4) Any report or document tabled more than once does not need to be recorded again as a Sessional Paper or Tabled Paper.

Tabling documents quoted from

40(5) Where in a debate a Member directly quotes from private documents, including digital representation or correspondence, any other Member may require the Member who is speaking to table a printed copy of the document quoted.

Relevancy

41 Speeches shall be directed to the question under consideration or to a motion or amendment that the Member speaking intends to move, or to a Point of Order.

Questions not to be revived or anticipated

42 No Member shall revive a debate already concluded during the session or anticipate a matter appointed for consideration of which notice has been given.

MEMBERS RISING SIMULTANEOUSLY

Precedence when two Members rise to speak

43 When two or more Members rise to speak, the Speaker shall call upon the Member who first rose in his or her place; but a motion may be made that any Member who has risen “be now heard” or “do now speak”, and the motion shall forthwith be put without debate.

SPEECHES LIMITED TO 30 MINUTES

30-minute limit

44(1) No Member may speak for more than 30 minutes in any debate.

Exceptions

44(2) The 30-minute limit does not apply to

- (a) the Leader of the Government or of a Recognized Opposition Party;
- (b) a Minister moving a Government Order; or
- (c) a Member making a motion of “no confidence in the Government”, or the Minister replying to the motion.

A Leader of a Recognized Party who has not yet spoken in a debate may, by giving written notice to the Speaker, designate one Member who may speak in that debate with unlimited time. In this instance, the 30-minute limit will then apply to the Leader.

10-minute limit during Private Members’ Hour

44(3) No Member may speak for more than 10 minutes

- (a) during a Private Members’ Hour; or
- (b) in a debate on an item of Private Members’ business called by the Government outside a Private Members’ Hour.

General rule on rotation

44(4) When a Member speaks in a debate, the Speaker must not recognize another Member from the same party to speak until an opportunity has been provided for a Member from another party who is standing in his or her place to speak.

Exception: splitting 30-minute limit

44(5) Except during the debate on the motions for an Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne and the Budget, on being recognized to speak, a Member may inform the Speaker that he or she is dividing the 30-minute limit equally with another Member of the same party. Such speeches must be given consecutively without rotation among the parties. A Member who speaks within that 30-minute limit may not speak again in the debate except as permitted by Rule 59 (Member may explain speech if misquoted or misunderstood).

THRONE SPEECH DEBATE

Limitation of debate on Address in Reply to Throne Speech

45 The proceedings on the Order of the Day for presenting and debating the motion for an Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne, and on any amendments proposed thereto, shall not exceed six sitting days.

One amendment and sub-amendment

46 Only one amendment and one sub-amendment may be accepted to the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne.

Interrupting debate for Government business

47(2) Despite sub-rule (1), the Government House Leader may interrupt the debate on as many as two sitting days to call Government business.

Disposal of questions

47(3) On the sixth of the six days, at 30 minutes before the usual adjournment hour, unless debate has previously been concluded, the Speaker shall interrupt the proceedings and forthwith put every question necessary to dispose of the main motion, and any amendments thereto. The House shall not adjourn until all the required actions have taken place.

Speaking times in debate

47(4) No Member may speak for more than 20 minutes in this debate.

Exceptions

47(5) The 20-minute limit does not apply to the Leader of the Government, of the Official Opposition, or of a Recognized Opposition Party.

A Leader who has not yet spoken in this debate may, by giving written notice to the Speaker, designate one Member who may speak in the debate for as long as the Member wishes. If the Member then speaks in the debate, the 20-minute limit applies to the Leader.

Termination of debate

47(6) On the eighth sitting day after the main motion has been moved, at 30 minutes before the usual adjournment hour, unless debate has previously been concluded, the Speaker shall interrupt the proceedings and forthwith put every question necessary to dispose of the main motion, and any amendments thereto. The Speaker shall not hear Points of Order or Matters of Privilege until all questions relating to this debate have been disposed of. The House shall not adjourn until all the required actions have taken place.

DEBATABLE MOTIONS

Non-debatable motions

48(2) All other motions, including adjournment motions, shall be decided without debate or amendment.

Constitutional Amendment Motion

100 hours of estimates not affected

50(9) A time allocation motion cannot have the effect of reducing the 100 hours allowed under Rule 76 for considering estimates and supply Bills.

CLOSURE OF DEBATE

Closure of debate

51(1) Immediately before the Order of the Day for resuming an adjourned debate is called, or if the House is in Committee of Supply or any other Committee of the Whole House, a Minister of the Crown who standing in their place has given notice at a previous sitting of their intention to do so, may move that the debate shall not be further adjourned, or that further consideration of any resolutions, clauses, sections, preambles or titles shall be the first business of the Committee and shall not be further postponed. In either case the question shall be decided without debate or adjournment.

Effect of adoption of closure motion

51(2) Where the motion for closure is resolved in the affirmative, no Member shall thereafter speak more than once, or longer than 30 minutes in any such adjourned debate; or, if in Committee, on any such resolution, clause, section or preamble; and if the adjourned debate or postponed consideration has not been resumed or concluded before 2:00 a.m., no Member shall rise to speak after that hour, but all such questions as must be decided in order to conclude the adjourned debate or postponed consideration shall be decided forthwith.

Limitation

51(3) This rule does not apply to a debate on a motion

53 The Speaker or the Chairperson of any Committee, after having called the attention of the House, or of the Committee, to the conduct of a Member who persists in irrelevance or repetition, may direct the Member to discontinue speaking; and if the Member still continues to speak, if in the House, the Speaker shall name the Member, and, if in Committee, the Chairperson shall report the matter to the House.

DECORUM IN DEBATE

Conduct during putting of question

54(1) When the Speaker is putting a question, no Member shall enter, walk out of, or across, the House, or make any noise or disturbance.
