House of Commons
Page Program

WHAT'S IT LIKE WORKING AS A PAGE?

Pages provide bilingual services to all Members of Parliament as non-partisan employees of the House Administration.

They're one of the few who are allowed access to the floor of the House during sittings, and their main role is to support Members in the Chamber.

Considering that pages are first-year students, the program collaborates closely with eligible post-secondary institutions to ensure a balanced academic and work schedule for all.

A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE

- Discover Canada's parliamentary system firsthand
- Act as a liaison between Members of Parliament and administrative staff
- Participate in ceremonial and protocol events
- Make your mark as a Page Program ambassador
