Canadian Business Counts

Canadian business counts provide counts of active businesses by industry classification and employment-size categories for Canada and the provinces and territories.

Each operating location is separately counted, including cases where one business comprises multiple locations. For example, a retail business with 10 stores represents 10 businesses in the Canadian business counts.

The data does not represent changes in the business population over time. Statistics Canada recommends that users not use the data as a time series.

North American Industry Classification System

The North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) is an industry classification system encompassing all economic activities. It has a hierarchical structure. At the highest level, it divides the economy into 20 sectors. At lower levels, it further distinguishes the different economic activities in which businesses are engaged.

The unclassified sector is made up of economic activities that have yet to be assigned a NAICS code.
