

This area is covered in more detail on the Interpretative Trail Guide available at the Thompson Zoo.

Miles Hart Bridge
A bridge dedicated to an Aboriginal trapper.

Aqueduct
Something artificial becomes almost natural.

BURNTWOOD RIVER

Seaplane Base
Serving fly-in lodges & remote communities.

River's Edge
A river that is four times larger than its original state.

MacLean Park
A summer location for weddings & performances.

Boreal Forest
Jack pine & black spruce grow in northern harsh conditions.

City Hall
Built for the Centennial City

Water Skiing
One of the best in Western Canada

The River Turns
The Burntwood takes a turn as it hits a wall of flat rock.

Land of Little Sticks
Tiny trees try their best in harsh soil conditions

King Miner
A huge statue dedicated to the people who work underground.

Thompson Zoo
A unique little zoo that houses northern species.

Police

DOWN TOWN

Granite Cliffs
The rock that lured early prospectors.

Rotary Outlook
Imagine the largest lake in North America!

Bailey Bridge
One section left over from another era.

Train Station
Access to Churchill, Polar Bear Capital

Norplex Pool
Fun with water

Lowrey Park

Viewpoint
Overlooking Thompson

Cliff Park

Hospital

Southwood Park

Heritage North Museum
Unique displays of Thompson

LEGEND

- Millennium Trail
- Access Points to Trail
- Points of Interest
- Public Washrooms
- Public Parking
- Pay Telephone
- Treed Areas

CAUTION: Any nature trail will have varying conditions based on weather and terrain. Use caution and common sense at all times. Users assume all risks.

MILLENNIUM TRAIL
Turn page over for description of Points of Interest