MUNICIPAL RELATIONS

Important Notice to All New and Returning Elected Officials

Invitation to:

I WAS ELECTED, NOW WHAT?

An overview of the “ONCE ELECTED, WHAT’S EXPECTED” Guidebook

Municipal Governance and Advisory Services is pleased to offer a virtual training session to provide information and guidance to both Newly Elected and Returning Council Members.

This upcoming session will provide:

- A brief overview of the “Once Elected, What’s Expected?” guidebook, including information on the upcoming full length sessions expected to take place in early 2023.
- The opportunity for Council Members to ask questions on various topics in relation to their new role.
- Information on the Roles and Responsibilities of Council, the CAO, and Municipal Staff.
- The importance of consulting your CAO first with any questions and working collaboratively to reach the municipality’s collective goals.

 Municipal Services Officers and other department staff are also available to meet with individual councils on specific matters if desired. To request a visit, a resolution of council can be sent to mrmaas@gov.mb.ca, and should outline the topic(s) that council wishes to discuss.

You can attend one of these virtual sessions via Microsoft Teams on:
